These allow access to the Car Park, the Main Site & use of the Toilet House.

Extra families who accompany you are asked to make a donation of £3.

BIRTHDAY PARTIES can be held with a minimum donation of £20

providing Mark Pasco has been notified in advance please – by 'phoning him on (01453) 845568. Please consider GIFT AIDING this.

3. SAFETY. There is full Public Liability Insurance.

The play site is not staffed & so members must accept full safeguarding responsibility for their own health & safety - & also be respectful & considerate of others using the play site at the same time.

* NO GATE SHOULD BE CLIMBED OVER.

* ALL GATES MUST IMMEDIATELY BE RE-PADLOCKED afterwards.

* PADLOCKS must never be taken elsewhere or gates left open.

Please report any LOSS OF A PADLOCK. The keyholder must personally admit any guests or latecomers.

* ANY DAMAGE on the play site must be reported asap

* Childrens HANDS SHOULD ALWAYS BE WASHED after playing in the water or sandpit areas – there is hygienic gel available in several places.

* The WATER PLAY area can get SLIPPERY – so wellies/jellies may be needed for grip & extra safety, at your discretion.

* On leaving, take extra care if turning right up main road, due to speed

4. ADULT SUPERVISION.

Every child must remain under the direct supervision of a responsible adult for their safety & behaviour – to ensure the child's actions do not endanger themselves or others in any way.

5. CAR PARK.

Parking is in the car park only & must be kept clear of the entrance gate & wheel chair access paths.

Children must never be left alone in the car park or toilet house or allowed to play there.

Cycle helmets are available to use for safety.

6. SITE BOUNDARIES.

The gates or perimeter fence must not be climbed onto or over.

The play site extends from the car park up to the pond viewing hide.

All the other surrounding land is private & should not be entered.
